Product: 01065438204 / 10188089 Modular Support

Description: XL Engineering has developed a modular support for rotary oven style machines that use the narrow support. Our design integrates the side pins into the side arms that eliminates the possibility of them becoming loose. The center support and both side arms are removable for replacement and maintenance purposes. This product is a Direct Fit™ to the OEM part.

Offering: XL Engineering stocks 01065438204 10188089 Modular Support. Please contact us for current price.
