Product: 10188015 Modular Support

Description: XL Engineering has developed a modular support for rotary oven machine models 24/24 & 40/42. Our design integrates the side pins into the side arms that eliminates the possibility of them becoming loose. The center support and both side arms are removable for replacement and maintenance purposes. This product is a DirectFit™ to the OEM part.

Offering: XL Engineering stocks all individual parts and the complete assembly. Please contact us for pricing.
